Peck and Miss Lillian C. Nowak. The attendees were John Peck and Miss Pauline Nowak, brother and sister of the groom and bride respectively. Celia Moczuh, a niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. Weber's orchestra furnished music during the afternoon and also played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as they were leaving the sacred edifice. The Nowak residence was very prettily decorated with amilax and roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck will make their home for the present at 403 Washington street. The bride is the fourth daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Nowak and has always made Stevens Point her home. She is an intelligent young lady, the possessor of an abundance of good looks and is also an exceptionally capable housekeeper. Joe is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Peck and for the past couple of years has been associated with his father in business on the east side of public square. He is a popular young man and has many friends in this city and throughout the county who will extend to himself and bride very sincere well wishes.

Frank Dunphy and Miss Bertha Landowski were joined in holy wedlock at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Peter's church, Rev. S. A. Elbert officiating. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Landowski, 305 Fourth avenue, after the ceremony and a largely attended reception followed, the wedding dinner being an elaborate affair. The young couple left on an afternoon train for Milwaukee to visit the bride's sister, and were accompanied to the depot in conveyances by a score or more of young people, the groomsmen and bridesmaid going as far as Waupaca and returned on No. 5. THE BIG CELEBRATION

This Year It Will Be Held at the South Side in This City—Part of the Program.

Preparations are already under way for the grand procession, which will start from the South Side at about 9:30 in the morning, and promises to be one of the best seen here in many years, various trades, industries, organizations, etc., being represented, while the comic features will be of the best. The line of march will be as follows: North on Division to Clark street; west on Clark to First; north on First to Main; east on Main to Strong's avenue; south on Strong's avenue to South Side. The speakers' and reviewing stand will be erected near the south side fountain.

The celebration will open at sunrise and continue throughout the day. The parade will be led by the Union band, and among those who will take part will be the fire companies, lodges, ragamuffins, etc., and is promised to be the grandest industrial and automobile parade ever seen in Central Wisconsin. After the parade there will be an address by Mayor Walters and an oration by Walter B. Murat, the speaker of the day, followed by a band concert. Commencing at 1:30 in the afternoon the following athletic events will be given at the South Side square: 220 yard dash, for boys 15 years or under; boys' race, under 12 years; girls' race, under 15 years; 100 yard dash, free for all; fat men's race; three legged race; potato race; hobble sack race, for girls; sack race; wheelbarrow race; pie eating contest; catching greased pig; climbing greased pole; exciting motorcycle race. John Schwiter, manager of the Twin City Aviatrix, who was to give an exhibition, will not be here, owing to the fact that while making an exhibition at St. Paul on Monday, he fell with his machine and was seriously injured, one arm being broken and two ribs fractured, while his machine was demolished. T. R. Menk, his secretary, writes that he fell about 200 feet and all bookings for the next 30 days have been cancelled. No one will be sent here in his place, but the committee in session this afternoon took steps to provide another free attraction which will be equally as good as the aeroplane flight mentioned, and which will be announced through the medium of the press and on the printed programs.

WEDDED AT THE JUNCTION

School Teacher is Married to Dairy Farm Superintendent Last Thursday—Will Live in Illinois.

Enoch Haus of Rice Lake and Miss Ottillia Roth, for the past three years a teacher in the Junction City schools, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Roth, near the Junction, last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Nord of Rice Lake. Attending the young couple were Jacob Roth, Miss Laura Reigzecker of Monroe, Gerhard Haus and Miss Johanna Haus of Rice Lake. Elizabeth Rothermal of Janesville was ringbearer and little Verna Seboga acted as flower girl.

The bridal gown was a handsome creation of white silk mull.

Five o'clock dinner was served under the direction of Mrs. Alice Eaton of this city, about fifty guests being present. The Roth home was profusely decorated with roses and other fragrant blossoms. Among the guests present from a distance were Jacob Regez of Monroe and Mrs. Elizabeth Rothermal of Janesville.

The bride is a graduate of the Wood county training school at Grand Rapids. She is an accomplished and refined young lady and is regarded by all as a lovely girl.

Mr. Haus finished the agricultural course a few years ago at Wisconsin university and later was employed as foreman on Anton Siegert's big stock farm near Junction City. He has accepted a position as dairy superintendent near Mokena, Ill., and will take up his new duties soon. Their numerous friends hereabouts extend congratulations and good wishes.

Much Rain in West.

C. E. Van Hecke returned last week from a couple of months' stay in Dunn county, N. Dak., assisting his partner, T. J. Anders, on their big ranch. They have had an abundance of rain through that section, so much, in fact, that sowing and planting has been greatly retarded. One afternoon a couple of weeks ago there was a veritable cloudburst, five and one-half inches of rain falling within a few hours and washed away many sod houses occupied by settlers in that northern-clime.

Rabbi Caro Dies in Germany.

Rabbi Victor Caro of Milwaukee, who passed away from heart disease at Bad Neuhem, Germany, last Sunday, while on a trip abroad for his health, had a number of friends in this city, having visited here in the past. Several years ago he officiated at the wedding of Henry F. Anspach and Miss Lillian Hertz, at Rothman's hall. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bender, now of Milwaukee. Rabbi Caro was 56 years of age and was prominent in Milwaukee, taking a leading part in many moves for civic betterment.

J. P. McConnell is Dead.

John E. and Miss Mary Welch of Hull township and D. N. Welch of Auburndale were called to Marinette last week by the death of their brother-in-law, Jas. P. McConnell. He passed away at 2:15 o'clock Thursday morning and was buried Saturday forenoon, the latter day being the fourteenth anniversary of his marriage to Miss Anna T. Welch, which event took place at St. Stephen's church in this city.

Mr. McConnell was taken sick a week ago last Saturday with pneumonia, followed by an attack of pleurisy, which latter ailment was the immediate cause of death. The gentleman was born at Decorah, Iowa, 43 years ago. For a number of years he had been employed as gasmaker by the Light & Traction Co. at Marinette but recently was promoted to foreman of his department. Besides the widow, a family of eight children are left to mourn, six of whom are boys and two girls. One sister lives in Minnesota and he has two brothers at Decorah. The sympathy of many local friends will be extended to the afflicted family.

STRONG TEAM IS COMING

Fond du Lac Wants the Scaps of the Stevens Point Invincibles—Defeated Grand Rapids Last Sunday.

An exceptionally clever game of base ball is promised the local and visiting fans next Sunday afternoon, when Fond du Lac will come to Stevens Point expecting to change the record of shut outs that the home team has made. Last Sunday the Fond du Lac boys defeated Grand Rapids by a score of 6 to 2, and a few days previously were defeated by the strong Fox Lake team, 1 to 0.

Devine, who pitches for the visitors, is said to be one of the classiest on the semi-professional diamond. He will be assisted behind the plate by Hartle, son of Policeman Ed. Hartle of this city, who has made a reputation during the past two or three seasons. Young and Nigbor will do the special work for the locals. The game will be called at the usual hour, 3 o'clock sharp. A Fond du Lac paper had this to say about the contest with Fox Lake:

"'Keckie' Moll, University of Wisconsin star athlete, who is playing base ball with the Fox Lake, Wis., independent team, was responsible for a 1 to 0 defeat handed to the Soo line ball team at Fox Lake Sunday afternoon. Moll got the one lonely bingle allowed the Fox Lake gang by Devine, but the run came when a Fox Lake runner was on third base, having got a life on a walk and to third on a passed ball."

SUDDEN DEATH IN CARSON

Helen Kitowski Ruptures Appendix and Dies Without Warning—Family Sorely Afflicted.

Funeral services for Helen, the 18 year old daughter of John Kitowski of Carson township, were held at the Mill Creek Catholic church last Monday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. A. Forisak officiating, after which the body was brought to this city for interment in St. Peter's cemetery. The procession was an exceptionally long one, friends and neighbors for miles around turning out to pay a last tribute of respect. It is estimated that fully five hundred people gathered at the Kitowski home the evening before to extend their sympathy to the surviving relatives.

The death of this young lady is a peculiarly sad one. On Tuesday of last week she lifted a can of milk weighing about 85 pounds and carried it some distance. Later developments indicate that Helen ruptured her appendix at this time, but the following day she was able to be about the house and continued to perform most of her usual duties until nearly noon on Saturday. An hour before this time her father returned from town with a number of purchases, when Helen conversed with him a few moments and then laid down on a couch. Just before the noon hour Mr. Kitowski noticed a decided change in his daughter's condition and with the assistance of other members of the household did everything possible for her relief, but she lapsed into unconsciousness and died within fifteen or twenty minutes.

Besides her grief stricken father she is survived by two younger sisters and five brothers, all but one of whom, Frank Kitowski of this city, live on the farm.

This family has met with many misfortunes of late years. While tlawing out some frozen dynamite in the kitchen oven about three years ago, the stuff exploded, killing Mrs. Kitowski and so badly hurting one of the daughters that the latter died within a few days. Helen was also seriously injured at this time and spent several days in a local hospital.

On the 6th of last January their house burned, fire having caught from a defective chimney, and they not only lost the building and contents, but several of the family had close calls with their lives. Mr. Kitowski sold a quantity of live stock the day before, for which he received $1,300 in cash, which money he placed in a metal box. One of the neighbors, Nick Klish, was directed as to its location and just got out of the house with his precious package when the roof fell in.

Since her mother's death Helen had been the mainstay of the family circle and was not only a hard and faithful worker, but a young lady admired and respected by all who knew her.

Auto Trip to Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hanson of Arnott returned from Crystal Falls, Mich., last Saturday evening, having left home one week before in their automobile and enjoyed at most delightful trip. On their return they were accompanied by the wife of Mrs. Hanson's brother, Dr. Arthur Metcalf, of Crystal Falls, and the lady will enjoy a visit with her son, who is operator for the G. B. & W. road in this city.

Beavers Hold Annual.

M. E. Bruce, L. C. Scribner, R. H. Burns and Mrs. K. M. Karner of this city attended the convention of Beavers and Beaver Queens at Chippewa Falls last week. A banquet was given on the first evening of the convention, Mr. Burns being among those who responded to toasts. Wm. Newby of Plover, A. J. Wilson of Amherst and F. W. Keffner of Almond represented the fraternities at those places. At this time Mr. Burns was re-elected as a member of the board of directors. The Beavers intend to build a sanatorium, to cost about $20,000, the place to be determined upon, and voted $1,000 from the reserve as a starter.

Summer School Reception.

The first of a series of social entertainments to be given at the Stevens Point Normal during the summer session took place last Thursday evening, when practically all of the 340 students and an unusually large number of townspeople attended an informal reception. Guests were greeted upon their arrival by Principal F. S. Hyer, Mrs. Hyer, Pres. and Mrs. Sims and members of the faculty, and later in the evening a delightful musical program was given, including cornet solos by F. E. Noble and vocal solos by Geo. W. Smalley and Henry M. Halverson. Dancing was enjoyed for an hour or more.

Dwelling is Damaged.

A house owned by Mrs. Verona Okray and occupied by this lady and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Helminski, on the Jordan road, near the northeast part of town, was badly damaged by fire last night at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Okray was going up stairs with a lighted lamp in one hand, when she stumbled and in order to keep from falling loosened her grasp of the lamp, which was shattered and the oil caught afire. Such companies responded promptly, but as the nearest hydrant was at the corner of Main and Reserve streets, several blocks to the south, it took considerable time before a line could be laid. In the meantime a bucket brigade was actively at work and kept the blaze partially subdued. The kitchen part was ruined and part of the roof on the upright badly damaged, entailing a loss of about $350, fully covered by insurance in G. W. Hein's agency.

Their Annual Picnic.

The employees at Miss Carrie Frost's fly factory, as well as the proprietor, will hold their annual picnic at Lake Emily next Saturday, leaving here on the Green Bay train at 6:45 a. m. and returning in the evening, after spending the day at the lake. A rate of 50 cents for the round trip has been secured, and all who desire to accompany the picnickers will be welcome.

Come to the Picnic.

Everything for the Old Settlers' Picnic is arranged and a fine program for the afternoon is perfected. Let everyone come and bring their basket of lunch. The real old settlers are passing away rapidly. The settlers of the 30's are all gone, only three or four of the 40's are still living and those of the 50's are fast passing away. So come out and visit once more with them. You will all soon be old settlers. Cartmill's grove, next Saturday, June 29th.

Millions in Ice Cream.

Just how many millions of dollars are expended each season in this country for ice cream, we do not know, not having seen the statistics, but it is evidently consumed in large quantities from ocean to ocean and from the great lakes on the north to the gulf. Art. Benham, a former Stevens Point resident and who will be kindly remembered by scores of our readers, is president of the Benham Ice Cream Co., an incorporated institution, at Fresno, Cal. They have a capacity of 2,000 gallons per day, and at present employ 24 people. Mr. Benham writes that they also have an open air theatre, doing a big business.

Next year's national gathering will be held at Jacksonville, Florida.

Therefore, the meetings may close as soon as the business brought before them is transacted.

LATEST FROM BALTIMORE

It Looks Like Champ Clark for President on Democratic Ticket—Adjourned Until 8 This Evening.

The National Democratic convention, now in session at Baltimore, was organized yesterday by the election of Judge Alton B. Parker of New York, Democratic candidate for President four years ago, as temporary chairman, he being elected by a vote of 579 to 506 for Bryan.

This forenoon Ollie James of Kentucky, an ardent supporter of Champ Clark for President, was made permanent chairman. Clark's chances for the nomination seem good, with ex-Gov. Dix or some other eastern man for second place. After some other routine business this afternoon, the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock this evening.

HE LOST HIS RIGHT ARM

Henry Mills of Hull Met With Deplorable Accident Near Soo Depot Last Sunday Morning.

Henry Mills, youngest son of Mrs. Olive Mills, who resides in the town of Hull, about two miles east of the city, had a narrow escape from instant death, last Sunday morning, and as a result of his misfortune will remain a cripple for life. For the past month or more Henry and Michael Nugent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nugent, who also live in Hull, had been employed in a stone quarry near Waupaca, and it had been their custom to come home Saturday night and return to Waupaca on Sunday. Neither of them had been at home for two weeks and Saturday night they jumped aboard passenger train No. 5 as it pulled out of Waupaca, and just before the train reached the Stevens Point station they decided to jump off. The train was still moving with considerable speed, but young Nugent landed safely on the south side of the track. Not so, however, did Mills, and as he jumped his right arm fell back across the rail and the wheels passed over it, crushing the upper part almost to a pulp. Notwithstanding the seriousness of his injuries, his head, face and body also being cut and bruised, he was able to walk with the assistance of his companion, as far as the Dewey Hotel, where he sat down on the steps and awaited the arrival of medical assistance, which had been summoned. Dr. Smiley was the first to arrive and the young man was placed aboard the patrol and taken to the doctor's office, a couple of blocks distant. Drs. Rogers, Southwick and von Neupert, Jr., also responded to calls and it was determined to at once amputate the arm at just above the shoulder joint.

The unfortunate young man is about 23 years of age and is an industrious young man, the possessor of exemplary habits, and friends extend sympathy to him, his widowed mother, sisters and brother.

The condition of the young man was very precarious for a couple of days after the accident and operation, but yesterday and today he is much improved, able to partake of nourishment, and it is probable that he will soon be able to be removed to the home of his mother.

Last of the Season.

The closing banquet of the season will be given by the Business Men's Association at Hotel Sellers, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Wausau and Merrill will be represented, the object of the meeting being to take some action relative to procuring an extension of the Soo from Stevens Point to those cities. We are all interested in this move, and it would not only benefit the three cities named, but all other points touched along the line. There will no doubt be a good turnout.

Will Tour Great West.

Mrs. J. E. Burns and daughter, Elizabeth, of 926 Normal avenue, will leave on tomorrow morning's Soo train for the west. They will go to Spokane, Portland, Seattle and other towns near the Pacific coast and expect to be away until the opening of school in September.

Mrs. Elizabeth Collins and daughter, Miss Mary, will leave tonight for Portland, Ore., where they will spend several months visiting at the home of their son and brother, W. F. Collins, who has resided there for the past three years. They will go directly to Portland over the Northern Pacific road and expect to arrive at their destination next Saturday evening.

Miss Anna Virum, who is at home from her duties as a teacher in the schools of Menomonie, Wis., will leave here next Wednesday for Minneapolis to spend the 4th among friends in that city. Miss Virum will take a Canadian Pacific train for Van Couver and other points in British Columbia and thence by boat to Portland. She will also visit Seattle and numerous other Pacific coast cities.

Lost One Foot.

John Stauber, a fifteen year old boy who had been employed by the Roddis Lumber Co. at Marshfield, had one of his feet so badly crushed that it had to be amputated last Thursday morning. He boarded a freight car to ride to the company plant, located in the eastern part of town, and when he attempted to get off the rapidly moving train, he was thrown beneath the wheels with the result stated.

How Far?

Our Canadian friends tell us of the advantages of living in their country—promoters have a happy faculty of seeing the beauties of things. From upper Wisconsin, where there are plenty of acres of cheap lands, as productive as any covered by the United States census, to Port Arthur is about 500 miles. From Port Arthur to Winnipeg is another 430 miles. From Winnipeg to Edmonton is still another 827 miles. Then you are well started for the cheap lands of western Canada, which you can get within 20 to 40 miles from a railroad.

Position of Fireman.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold an examination in this city on the 24th of July, 1912, for the position of fireman, the salary for which is $660 per year. No educational test will be given, the requirements being physical ability, training, experience and fitness.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their fifty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination. All honorably discharged United States soldiers and sailors of the Civil war and persons honorably discharged from military or naval service of the United States by reason of disability incurred in the line of duty will be admitted to this examination without regard to age limit. Persons who have suffered the loss of an arm or a leg, who are ruptured, or who have other serious disability are considered physically disqualified for this examination. No application will be accepted unless filled out in the handwriting of the applicant, properly executed, and filed in complete form with the district secretary at the postoffice prior to the hour of closing business on July 24, 1912.

Boost, Brothers, Boost!

We can not all be president
And boss the village board,
We can not all become the gent
Who wins a mayor's reward,
We can not all become the guy
Who rules the highest roost;
But one thing we can do, say I—
That's boost, my brothers, boost!

This town is just as good a town
As anywhere you'll hit;
There's naught on earth can keep it Down.

If we keep boosting it,
Let's trade at home, let's let a yell
By local pride produced;
There's one thing all can do as well—
That's boost, my brothers, boost!

When any fellow starts to knock
This town in any way,
Our dads to dig, our maids to mock,
Our Government to flay,
Just take the knocking one aside
And, ere your hold is loosed, Just whisper gently, "Darn your hide,
Now boost, you knocker, boost!"

Funeral Thursday Forenoon.

The body of the late John O'Leary, who passed away in Chicago, arrived here on the early morning train last Thursday and was taken directly to the home of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Moran, on Normal avenue. Mrs. O'Leary, daughter and son, Margaret and Arthur, accompanied the remains. Church services had been held in Chicago and the funeral took place directly from the residence at 10 o'clock, Rev. W. J. Rice officiating at the family lot in St. Stephen's cemetery. The pallbearers were Jas. D. McHugh, John Leahy, Alex. Love, M. Cassidy, N. Gross and Jas. Welch. Other relatives present from outside the city were Mrs. Dennis Leahy and daughter, Miss Clara of Lanark, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Johnston of Rhineland, Jos. Moran of Fond du Lac and Thos. Walsh of Hartford. The parents of the deceased were among the early pioneers of Stevens Point, coming here when this city was in its infancy, but for the past twenty-five years or more he had lived at Minneapolis and Chicago.

Why Slight Good Roads?

The United States spends annually $95,000,000 for the maintenance of a standing army, $125,000,000 annually for its naval establishment and $4,000,000 annually for diplomatic representatives abroad. But the United States government spends nothing annually for good roads. The Democratic House of Representatives, however, has appropriated $18,000,000 for the improvement of the nation's highways, and if the Republican Senate does not chloroform the bill, the Sixty-second Congress will have inaugurated a public policy that will permit the farmers of the nation to receive a just share of the benefits of the vast government expenditures.

Self-Development.

A town is in some ways like a person. If it amounts to anything it must be largely self-made. The town that drifts, like the person that drifts, or the ship that drifts, is not likely to come to the right harbor. If prosperity is the heaven desired, it will not be reached without determination and self-guidance. This truism has been applied to human conduct so often as to become commonplace, and would not be repeated here except to emphasize the fact that it applies to communities quite as much as to individuals.

A town is a problem like a child. It should not be left to grow up by itself. Its destiny should be guided by the wisdom of its elders. There is no lack of elders in any town who have opinions as to what is wrong with it. They are to be found at the grocery store, the cigar store and every common meeting place. If these wiseacres would exercise their perspicacity in figuring out what would be good for the town, and then would all pull together in trying to bring that good about, the result would be such a matter of local pride that nobody would want to talk about anything else. The destiny of a community, like that of an individual, can be controlled; the possibilities of development and improvement are almost unlimited; and it is not only wisdom but money in the pocket for citizens to take their town in hand and try to make it amount to something.

Willie Hisek, the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hisek, had the misfortune to break his leg last Tuesday afternoon. Willie was riding on the wagon with his father, who was hauling a load of stone, and got his foot in the wheel, breaking the limb just above the ankle. He was taken to the hospital at Marshfield.

Student Paper at University.

The Wisconsin Daily News, issued by the students of the University of Wisconsin, made its bow to the public on Tuesday of last week. It is an eight page paper, seven columns to the page, and the first number made its appearance on cardinal colored paper. John A. Dorney, a graduate of the Stevens Point High school, whose parents now reside at Grand Rapids, is vice president and a director of the new corporation. He is a law student and will graduate in 1914.

Better Coming Than Going.

The inquiry for Wisconsin lands continues to increase. This statement comes to the office of the Wisconsin Advancement association from all parts of the state. Of late there have been many inquiries for the developed farms of the southern part of the state. People in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana and other states have recently learned of the great productiveness of the cheaper Wisconsin farms and are coming for them. This is as it should be. The sellers are largely investing their capital in manufacturing industries, and thus the state grows. It is far better to have money coming into than going out of the state. It is with this idea that the Wisconsin Advancement association is telling of the merits of the whole state.

History Repeats Itself.

If the Republicans are swept from power on November 5 because of their failure to live up to tariff promises, it will not be the first time that the tariff operated to the same end for the party of protection.

During the war the tariff had been elevated to the skies but afterwards the Democrats tried to have it reduced. By 1880 the Republicans had to notice the demand. They promised downward revision, but in 1882 passed a bill making only slight reductions. The public got mad—just like it is now over the Payne-Aldrich bill—and in 1884 elected Cleveland.

When the Republicans got into power again they boosted the tariff, which had been lowered by the Democrat. Prices went up, the rank and file became indignant, and in 1892 again made Grover Cleveland president.

Biggest Issue of All.

How is the cost of living to be reduced? This is the most important question before the American people. Its solution is more vital far than the identity of the next president. Under the present system of excessive protection, those who toil are each year finding it more difficult to make a living, while the comparative handful of millionaires who chiefly reap the benefit of this toil spend their time in idleness and dissipation, their fortunes meanwhile increasing in proportion to the cost of living.

The result is that many Americans, particularly the hardworking poor, are becoming plainly dissatisfied with the way things are going; disgusted with this form of government, and are turning to socialism.

This feeling on the part of the wage earner is simply history repeating itself. Extravagance and poverty, the history of republics shows, never made good bed-fellows in a "cradle of liberty." It is obviously important that the high cost of living problem be solved before the unrest grows to greater proportions. The earlier it is solved the better for the republic. Which party will solve it, the Republican party or the Democratic party?

The Republican theory has always been that the heavier the tariff tax on the things eaten, worn or used by the people, the better for that people. The Democratic theory is that to reduce taxation is to reduce prices. The people must choose between the two policies, the policy of protection or the policy of merely enough tariff to raise sufficient revenue to meet the expenses of the government.

Democratic Daily at Merrill.

There is a new Democratic paper at Merrill. It isn't a new paper in the sense of just having been started, but has issued as a Republican daily for several years. The editor of the Herald is Chris Johnson, postmaster at Merrill for several years, a brilliant writer and one who is not afraid to express his convictions. In an editorial on the expected outcome of the Chicago convention last Saturday's Herald concluded with this paragraph:

What will Wisconsin Progressives do when Taft is nominated? Support him? The man who has done everything under the sun to ruin the political life of LaFollette, their leader, and who has termed them neurotics? For one the Herald will not. Whomever the Democrats nominate at Baltimore will be good enough for us to vote and work for.

The latest on the western Canada crops is that there will be less wheat than this year—less acreage—than last year, and not much more acreage of oats than last year. This is a surprise, considering the vast immigration that has been claimed. It raises the question whether or not people who went there recently have not given up the task of getting established in that distant section of the world.

Treated Her to a Speech.

I remember Winston Churchill as a young fellow, very much in society when he wished to be and as any cousin of a duke could be, but an infant terrible to many a hostess, leaving his manners at home when he went out to dine and apparently some place else when guests came to his mother's house. Shortly after his return from South Africa he offered to show me his interesting souvenirs of the Boer war. But when we were en tete-a-tete he became so absorbed in discussing the question of the Boer government that I found myself, to my amazement, listening to an oration of three-quarters of an hour. He turned his back upon me, striding over to a long mirror to deliver to his own reflection there, with numerous gestures and facial contortions, wheeling around at the finish to say, "It just occurred to me what a capital speech that would make in the house of commons some day." (This was before he had ever won a seat.) "I wanted to get it fixed in my mind before I forgot it."—From "Intimacies of Court and Society," by the Widow of an American Diplomat.

His Real Motive.

General F. D. Grant at a Washington's birthday dinner in New York some years ago told a story about a young Boston Tory.

"This Tory," he said, "fought during the Revolution neither on one side nor on the other. He took a pleasure trip on the continent, and he didn't come back home again until the war was over. He was treated very coldly by society on his return, and this grieved his good old mother to the heart. The dear old lady tried to explain the matter one afternoon to a Boston belle.

"Naturally, as the head of the family," she said, "my son could not take part in the war. To him fell the duty, perhaps the more arduous duty, of protecting his mother and sisters and looking after the interests of the estate."

"Oh, madam," said the belle, with an icy smile, "you need not explain. I assure you I'd have done exactly as your son did—I'm such a coward!"

Thrifty Papa and His Son.

A young Scotch friend of mine of high literary reputation generally spends once a year a month with his family on the outskirts of Edinburgh. His father is a minister occupying a very enviable position. On the day of his departure my friend invariably finds on the breakfast table by the side of his plate a little paper carefully folded. It is a detailed account of the meals he has had during his visit to his father's house—in other words, his bill. But the son is as thrifty as papa and does not part with his coin before he has ascertained that all the items are accurate and the addition correct.

"Why, father," said he, "I see you have marked the bacon and eggs for my yesterday's breakfast. I assure you I did not touch the eggs."

"You were wrong not to do so, then, my boy. They were on the table. Why didn't you help yourself?"—Paul Blouet (Max O'Rell).

Jealous Fishes in a Duel.

"Fish are liable to the same passions as you and I, and they fight and love as we do," said Dr. Francis Ward. "I can show you a photograph of a rainbow trout in what would have been a fight to the death if I had not interfered. In a pond were a big female trout and her partner, who resented the intrusion of another trout. Suddenly one fish charged the other and seized him by the jaw. He shook his opponent as a dog shakes a rat and kept on until his enemy floated to the top. Then I took the fish out and revived it with a little weak whisky and water."—London Mail.

Too Realistic.

"Ma," said the little boy, "will you let me take baby out in the perambulator? Bob Carr an' Billy Pitt an' me we're goin' to play at a railway accident. The perambulator is to be the train, an' baby's to be the passenger who's pitched out on his head, an' he's to be saved from bein' run over by another train just in time." Three hours later when the baby was safely in bed the little boy was released from the coal cellar.—New York Journal.

Fast Time.

An Irishman while standing on the deck of a steamship which was bound for America was interested in watching the descent of a diver. Upon the arrival of Pat in New York he was astonished to behold a diver just appearing above the surface of the water. Going to the rail of the vessel, he shouted to him, "Falth, sor, and ye got over as quickly as meself!"—Exchange.

THE SOCIALIST CAUSE

Ex-Mayor Seidel of Milwaukee Addresses a Small Audience in This City Last Friday Evening.

Emil Seidel, former mayor of Milwaukee and the Social Democratic nominee for vice president of the United States, made his initial appearance in Stevens Point last Friday evening, at which time he spoke to a gathering at Empire Amusement hall at 15 cents per. Mr. Seidel certainly "set a new pace" or established a precedent in Stevens Point, this being the first time an admission was charged to hear a purely political speech in this city. Those who attended, however, were well pleased with the address, whether or not they agreed with his theories, he being an easy talker, with only occasional spasmodic flights of oratory, but was quite flowery at times. L. P. Schueller introduced the speaker in a few well chosen sentences, assuring his hearers that the gentleman gave Milwaukee the best and most honest administration it ever had.

Mr. Seidel said he wished to assure his hearers that he is a father as well as a Socialist, and also an American citizen, born in this country. The women at present have no protection, he said, but it would be different under Socialism, that party believing in absolute woman suffrage. He said he wished to deny the assertion that Socialists are not good citizens, but the fact that they belong to that organization make them better citizens. Capitalism and not Socialism believes in abolishing property ownership, making it impossible for the average wage earner to own his own home. All kinds of public utilities, such as lighting, water, street car systems, telephone lines, etc., could be owned by the people themselves instead of by corporations. The speaker also denied the allegation that Socialism is opposed to religion, saying that this is a matter for the individual to decide, one he must settle between his conscience and his God. It would, however, make him a better father, a better citizen and a better wage earner, thus enabling him to better pay his rent.

There is a growing unrest in this country, he said, not only in politics, but in religion and other walks as well, and the heavy hand of oppression is felt by nearly every citizen. The capitalistic system controls our industries, railroads, elevators, steamboats and everything imaginable, even the government itself, all being subject to the "big interests." All must bow to its dictates. Such men as former Gov. Altgeld of Illinois, Tom Johnson of Cleveland and others worked for years in the cause of the people, but were subdued, and the Knights of Labor and Populist movements that flourished at one time, soon became extinct, and insurgency must go the same way. Capitalism is active in our councils, our legislatures, in railroad and other organizations, and is still reaching out, ready to swallow up everything in its path. By cutting off its profit, rent and interest it would die. Capitalism will do anything profit. It will distill whiskey, make cigarettes and drive to the very lowest levels of humanity, all for profit. This is the issue that is confronting the public, the one that stands between the man and the dollar and is getting harder year by year.

Mr. Seidel said that while the cost of living has increased 60 per cent. in this country within the past fifteen years, wages have increased but 20 per cent., and the end has not yet been reached, as monopolies continue to grow. One group of men in this country, the Morgan interests, control one-eighth of the entire wealth of the land. Capitalism is merciless and will do anything to get its pound of flesh. The speaker paid his respects to the "big interests" at length, saying that the strongest will survive and the weakest go down. Different ways of smashing the trusts have been tried in the past, but after the battle is over all come forth richer than before. Neither is it possible to regulate them, as suggested by the old parties. Milwaukee tried that with the electric light company, but found it was too easy for them to get a "certificate of necessity" from the rate commission. The Socialists say own these public utilities—neither attempt to smash or regulate. Roosevelt and his big stick, the man who the speaker said is the biggest boss this country ever had, the fellow who says there are good and bad trusts, the good ones being those who contribute the most to the campaign fund, was given attention by the speaker. Mr. Seidel's verbal pictures were pleasant to listen to, having been nicely arranged, but he did not offer any early relief from the present state of unrest and discontent, seeing none in the near future, and therefore urged upon the young people to become "comrades" in the cause, that they may become free from the greed of profit, rent and interest.

At the close of the meeting questions were asked by L. J. N. Murat, A. R. Week, Dr. Walters and Prof. Collins. Mr. Seidel admitting among other things that this country could not prosper as it has if it had been under Socialistic domain during the past fifty years.

It Reminded Him.

"The dew is falling," she said. "Let us go in before it settles."

"Yes," he answered, but a worried look stole into his face. Little did she dream that with him many dews were falling and that he was utterly unable to settle.—Judge.

There Were Others.

"John, I want the baby named Paul."

"My dear, Paul was a woman hater."

"Mercy! Did you think I meant that Paul? I'm naming him for Paul Jones."—Chicago Tribune.

Perfectly Proper.

Smith—Jones seems to have no thought for anything except his clothes. Brown—Yes; he is perfectly wrapped up in them.

Good faith is a seldom guest. When you have him hold him fast.—German.

One Day.

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in. Forget them as soon as you can.— Emerson.

Watch your neighbors—

Look at the new roofs. Notice how Peerless Prepared Roofing is covering the buildings hereabouts. And those same Peerless roofs will be just as good and just as sound ten or fifteen years from now as they are today. And in the meantime the owners won't have to spend one penny in repair expense. Peerless Prepared Roofing ends all that.

Peerless Roofing

How about your roofs? Profit by the experience of your neighbors. Cover your building, too, with Peerless Roofing. It's durable as a hillside, and when you use Peerless you can spend elsewhere the money that you used to pay for roof repairs. Peerless is worth a dozen ordinary roofs by every test. Fire or wind or water—cold or heat or snow—it's all the same to a Peerless roof. It'll keep right on wearing to the day you're ready to build another structure in place of the one it covers.

At least come in and investigate. You owe it to your property and your pocket-book. We're ready to talk. Are you?

WERE RUN OVER BY AUTO

Two Young Ladies Thrown to the Pavement, Saturday Evening, but Escape Serious Injury.

Misses Anna and Florence Krutza, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Teofil Krutza, who reside on the old Wausau road, just north of the city limits, were injured by being struck by an automobile driven by Chris. Christianson of Nelsonville, last Saturday evening. The young ladies were crossing the square, and were nearly to the east side thereof when the car struck them. Christianson was driving a Ford runabout, going at a moderate rate of speed, and as he came across the square from the south, another car driven by John Mieskowski, suddenly appeared, coming west on Main street. In his effort to avoid a collision, Christianson quickly turned his car from the regular course and the Misses Krutza were caught and thrown to the brick pavement. The car, which is fortunately of light structure, ran over both of them, the wheels passing over Miss Anna, and they were considerably cut and bruised about the face, arms and body. Assistance was quickly at hand, Mr. Christianson being among the first, and after having their wounds dressed at the office of Dr. Bird, the young ladies were taken to their home, where they are doing nicely. This was one of those unavoidable accidents which occasionally occur, where it can truthfully be said no one was to blame.

Portage county is entitled to 12 delegates.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee.

ANOTHER CYPHER FOR CY

Hons, the Come Back Pegger, Pitches a Fine Game Also—Menzel Plays With Merrill.

The Merrill crowd should be a happy one, for they have the honor of being the only team to score against us. Saturday's game was not up to standard. The Merrill team seemed to be stricken with a bad bunch of nerves. Sunday, however, they played their regular game and put up an exceptional article of ball. Annette Kellerman gave a fine exhibition of diving out in center field Saturday. Keep it up, "Bunny," that's playing the game.

Oliver Gregory won the $2 offered for the first home run and old "Boss Hons," the come-back boy, copped $1 for the first three-bagger. Hons, you are coming fine this year, batting and fielding like a colt. Old Pop Anson has nothing on you. Fine work in the box, too—3 hits and 10 strikeouts.

Cy, our motorcyclist, still retains his high honors of not being scored upon and setting aside 13 of the Merrillites by the strike out route. "Fish," she was a daisy and now we can expect a repeater from you, for you've shown us what a fine brand of home runs you have hid away in your shalalah.

Boys, let's do away with umpire baiting, for remember the ladies are with us and it surely does not meet with their favor. Excitement of the moment oftentimes causes unpleasant scenes, so let's count 10 anyway before we lose our tempers.

Menzel sprung a surprise by doing the backstop work for Merrill. He did grand work, too. Success to you, Old scout. No tabulated score this week. The official scorer hasn't presented his book for inspection.

A detailed account of the Republican National convention, the most stormy and bitter ever held in this country, is given in part second of this issue, together with pictures of the nominees, Taft and Sherman. That Col. Roosevelt, who was so coldly, yet thoroughly, turned down, intends to start a third party, a little organization of his own, having severed his relations with the old party, was manifested by the bolt made by him and his followers after the regular convention, when they met in Orchestra Hall and passed previously prepared resolutions, nominating Roosevelt as the choice of the new party and laid out plans for a meeting in the near future.

BOTH ARMS WERE BROKEN

Herman Luckenbach, Inspector for Soo, Met With Serious Accident at Kolze Last Wednesday.

Herman Luckenbach of Menasha, boiler and pump inspector for the Soo, met with a distressing accident at Kolze about five o'clock last Wednesday evening. Just how the accident happened, no one knows, not even Mr. Luckenbach, but he was caught in a fly wheel and thrown with such force that both arms were broken, one shoulder dislocated, his forehead cut, and he was otherwise bruised and injured. He was inspecting an engine used to pump water into the tank at the time. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to a hospital at Oak Park, where he was operated upon and did not regain consciousness until Friday. He is now doing nicely and it is expected that he will soon be able to be brought home.

Mr. Luckenbach is quite well known in this city and, in fact, along much of the Soo system, his territory being from Chicago to Abbotsford, and is a man of fine physique, being over six feet tall, strong and athletic, traits that will stand him in good stead at this time, as they have in the past, he having been caught in a fly wheel about five years ago and suffered a broken leg in two places. Mrs. Luckenbach is a sister of Mrs. E. A. Oberweiser of this city.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Articles and Items of News that Appeared in the Columns of The Gazette, Quarter of a Century Ago Today.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kitowski at their home in the Fourth ward on Thursday of last week.

The young mining city of Hurley met with a serious conflagration yesterday, about 80 buildings being destroyed.

Fred Kuhl, who has been a student at Pio Nono college, St. Francis, near Milwaukee, during the past year, has returned home.

A. G. Hamacker left for the Cream City last week for the purpose of joining some of his Masonic brethren on an excursion to Detroit.

Berens & Schenk, the harbers, have already commenced preparing for the Fourth by having the front of their building painted in the national colors, red, white and blue.

Martin Corcoran of this city has been ill with stomach trouble at the Plankinton House, Milwaukee, for several days, dangerously so at one time, but is now considerably improved.

The new Polish school on the North Side will be opened about the 15th of August. Four Sisters will arrive here prior to that time to instruct the children who will attend that institution.

Jeff Wright, who has been holding a government position at Washington during the past fifteen months, is at home upon a 30 days leave of absence. He holds the position of "lieutenant of the watch" in the postoffice department.

Jas. Meehan and wife left for Milwaukee the first of the week to make that city their future home. Mr. Meehan being heavily interested in real estate there. Patrick Meehan and wife will move to Milwaukee in the fall.

C. E. Blodgett of this city has a crew of about 400 Indians picking blue berries west of Grand Rapids. On Saturday last they gathered about 300 bushels. The berries are shipped to Chicago, Milwaukee, Oshkosh and nearly every city in the state.

While on his way home from Simcoe, Kas., last week, Crosby H. Grant stopped at Flint, Mich., and visited the farm of Chas. Goodrich, well known in this city. Charlie has about 125 swarms of bees from which he will gather several thousand pounds of honey this year.

Fire was discovered in the rear part of the second story of Benham & Co.'s place of business at about 8 o'clock this morning, and it required about an hour's work on the part of the fire department to extinguish it. The loss will amount to between $300 and $500 from fire and water, which is fully covered by insurance.

La Fayette A. Calkins, a young attorney of this city, and Miss Bertha F. Burns of Ft. Howard were married at the home of the bride's parents last Wednesday, and at the same time Miss Minnie D. Burns and Alfred L. Brice were united in marriage. The first named young couple arrived here yesterday and will make this city their home.

The names of six students from this county are found in the annual catalogue issued by the State Normal school at Oshkosh. They are Elissa M. and Kate E. Dopp of Belmont, the former a senior and the latter a junior; Fred E. Webster, Amherst, elementary class; John J. Heffron, Stockton, and Anna M. Wagner, Belmont, second year class, and Belle S. Mitchell, Plover, first year class.

The nine miles of mains which the new Water Co. propose to run will not be sufficient to provide our citizens with the water supply demanded. There are a number of our principal streets upon which the lines will not run, and many of our heaviest taxpayers will not be furnished with water. It is proposed to ask the council to contract for two miles more of additional mains at a cost of $800 per mile per annum.

Shortly before 12 o'clock last Monday morning fire was discovered in the Upham Manfg. Co.'s yard at Marshfield, started, it is thought, by a spark from a Central switch engine at work in the yard, and the fire proved to be a most disastrous one to that heretofore prosperous young city, and before it was gotten under control every business place in the city, with one exception, had been destroyed. Our hand engine was sent up in the morning, and Chippewa Falls also sent its fire brigade. The Upham Co. were the heaviest losers, their loss being estimated at about $250,000. There were about 200 buildings burned, one-half of which were residences. Nearly every city in the state has sent assistance, as well as private individuals. The town will be rebuilt at once, although it will take some time to replace the various industries. Stevens Point was among the first to respond in helping her sister city, and on Tuesday morning's early train sent a carload of provisions, procured under the direction of Messrs. Ghoca and Stenger. A committee composed of Mayor Spraggon and Messrs. W. J. Clifford, Alex. Krembs and Emmons Burr, solicited subscriptions the following day and $689 was obtained, $400 of which went to pay for the carload above mentioned, and the balance in cash was sent to the sufferers.

Doing Their Duty

Scores of Stevens Point Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow. Help the kidneys do their work. Doan's Kidney Pills build up weak kidneys. Stevens Point people endorse our claim. Emil G. Betlach, 412 Elk street, Stevens Point, Wis., says: "My back was very lame and weak and pained me so intensely at times that it was all I could do to get about. I did not rest well and this resulted in a tired, worn out feeling when I got up in the morning. After stooping I was unable to straighten without taking hold of something for support. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, got a box at Taylor's drug store and began their use. In a few days my trouble left me and at that time I was so pleased that I told of my experience in a public statement. I willingly confirm my former testimonial. Once in awhile I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and my kidneys are thus kept in good working order."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y., sole agent for the U. S.

For the Children

The Funny Antics of Young Animals at Play.

The author of "Animals at Work and Play" says the faculty of amusement comes early to playful young creatures.

In the zoo the bear cubs tussle with each other, and the polar bears wrestle while standing in their pool three feet deep or try to see how long one can hold another under the water. The graceful but grotesque gnu in performing his antics cuts up the ground of his yard with his sharp hoofs. He runs about his inclosure with great rapidity, turning sharply and digging the earth at each quick turn as he wheels about. Monkeys are, of course, the master players at the zoo. How the ostrich dances about with wings spread and head swinging in a laughable way is shown in the accompanying picture.

There seems to be an inborn desire for active movement in most creatures, and by such motions they get healthful exercise as well as amusement. Advanced thinkers on hygiene tell us that the most recreative exercise for human beings may be had in play. This active movement when mind and muscle are both engaged, brings to both body and mind greater benefit than can be had from any other form of recreation. Nature long ago taught her humbler creatures this, but we have been slow to learn the lesson.—St. Nicholas.

The Game of Buzz.

The old game of buzz has been almost forgotten, but it is well worth recalling because of its fun. The more the players the greater the fun. The way to play it is as follows: The players sit in a circle and begin to count in turn, but when the number 7 or any number in which the figure 7 or any multiple of 7 is reached they say "Buzz." Instead of whatever the number may be. For instance, supposing the players have counted up to 12, the next player will say "13," and the next "Buzz," because 14 is a multiple of 7 (twice 7). The next player would then say "15," and the next "16," and the next would say "Buzz" because the figure 7 occurs in the number 17. If one of the players forgets to say "Buzz" at the proper time he is out. The game then starts over again with the remaining players, and so it continues until there is only one person remaining. If great care is taken the numbers can be counted up to 70, which, according to the rules before mentioned, would be called buzz. The numbers would then be carried on as buzz 1, buzz 2, etc., up to 70, but it is seldom that this stage is reached.

Conundrums.

How does Sarah Bernhardt take her medicine? In cider (side her). Why is a very plain child a wonderful one? She is an extra-ordinary person.

Why is an orange like a church steeple? Because we have a peel from it.

Why are weary persons like auto wheels? Because they are tired.

In what does a lawyer resemble a woodcock? In the length of his bill.

What word will, if you take away the first letter, make you sick? Music.

Why should a ship's officer never put his chronometer under his pillow? Because he should never sleep upon his watch.

Clothing and Costume.

The words "clothing" and "costume" should not be used as if their meaning were the same. "Clothing" is what is used for protection, and "costume" is the clothing or the garments worn to meet the demands of fashion or of special occasions. In other words, "clothing" is a general term, "costume" a specific one.

Wishes.

Four leaf clover in the grass. Tell me, do you bring to pass All the wishes good and true Little children ask of you?

Do your magic leaflets hold Secrets fairies must have told? I have wishes, one, two, three, Will you grant them all to me?

First of all I want to know Where the first spring flowers grow, "Pilgrim buds" that, pink and shy, Hide away when I pass by.

My next wish, O clover dear, Grant to me when summer's here, Then I want so much to know Where the berries thickly grow.

My last wish, the best of all, To go nutting in the fall, And find walnuts crisp and brown That come joyfully tumbling down.

Now my wishes for the year I have told you, clover dear, Please to grant them one and all In the springtime, summer, fall, —Youth's Companion.

England planted its first settlement in this country 305 years ago, but today American millionaires are making settlements on the English.

Makes the Nation Gasp.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cts. at H. D. McCulloch Co.'s.

PORT SAID GAMBLERS.

Traps They Have Ready Baited to Fleece Unwary Tourists.

Picturesque Port Said, at the entrance to the Suez canal, is given an unsavory reputation by I. Johnston Abraham in his book, "The Surgeon's Log." Ugly stories are told about the town, the writer says, and his description of a gambling house fitted on purpose to fleece the unwary traveler bears out his assertion:

Suddenly as we drew near one house the strains of music came echoing into the empty sandy street. As if at a signal the decrepit chariot stood still, my guide got down and suggested I should go in. I thought rapidly and then followed him. It was queer, and I wanted to know. He led the way upstairs into a large room, where several men were playing roulette. None took any notice of me, but apparently the bank was having a very bad time of it. Every one was winning. The music from the automatic piano was deafening. I looked on silently for some time and then made a move for the door. An old looking Greek intercepted me.

"Won't you try your luck?" he said. "I'm not drunk enough," I answered. He shrugged his shoulders, and I passed on. On the stairs I paused and then stole quietly back. The music had ceased, and all the confederates who had been playing so feverishly and winning so much had ceased also and were preparing to resume the siesta my advent had so fruitlessly interrupted.

Free Drinks.

In the French chamber of deputies each speaker has to mount a tribune near the president's chair. On a deputy coming forward to address the assembly an usher invariably brings a glass of some beverage and places it at his side. Under the empire orators were allowed only a glass of sweetened water, and nowadays when a new speaker advances the usher, to be on the right side, gives him a glass of sweetened water, but among the veteran speakers water alone is not very high in favor. Cold soup, coffee, wine, spirits and lemonade are among the favorite beverages.

Perpetual Motion.

Perpetual motion machine? Suppose that man could finally perfect a machine that would run itself. It would not deliver a trace of power. The entire force would be employed in the running. It would have to be free from friction, not nearly, but absolutely. This man cannot accomplish. But the machine would of necessity have to start itself, an impossibility. Only creative mind is able to do this.—New York American.

Peroxide of Hydrogen.

Pure, unoxidized peroxide is scarcely more docile than nitroglycerin. In obtaining the pure product more than one chemist has lost his life. Shattered apparatus and even wrecked laboratories have marked the tremendous force of its explosions. In dilute solutions it is quite a different substance, destroying germs and preventing disease.

COINS AND THE MINT.

Metal Money That Uncle Sam's Officials Buy and Sell.

The mint does not buy old coins or paper money, except certain rare colonial coins in fine condition, desired for the mint's cabinet. Mutilated or uncurrent United States gold and silver coin is purchased as bullion. The mint has no pattern pieces for sale, and the government pays no premium for the return of any of its coins or paper money.

New coins cannot be struck in this country in the absence of authorization by congress. The mint supplies United States coins only and not of any past date. The fifty dollar gold piece and the half dollar and quarter dollar pieces in gold were struck by private parties on the Pacific coast during the '49 period and not by the federal government.

The collage of the following coins coined in the years named: The half cent, copper, in 1857; one cent, nickel, 1864; half dime and three cent, silver, and two cent, bronze, in 1873; twenty cent, silver, 1878; trade dollars, 1883; one dollar and three dollar, gold, and three cent nickel, 1889. The Columbian half dollar was coined in 1892 and the Isabella quarter in 1893. The Lafayette dollar was struck in 1899, the date on the coin (1900) being that of the unveiling of the memorial.

Certain markings, indicating the place of coinage, are to be seen on our coins. Those struck at the Philadelphia mint have no mint mark, but those struck at all other mints are distinguished by a small letter on the reverse, near the bottom. These letters are "C" for Charlotte, N. C., discontinued in 1861; "CO" for Carson City, Nev., discontinued in 1893; "D" for Dablonaga, Ga., discontinued in 1861; "O" for New Orleans, and "S" for San Francisco.

The coins of the United States now authorized by law are: In gold, double eagle, eagle, half eagle, quarter eagle; in silver, dollar, half dollar, quarter dollar and dime; minor, five cent, nickel and one cent, bronze.

Proof sets of both gold and silver coins are to be had by purchase from the mint. When business there is slack medals may be struck from dies furnished by individuals, public institutions and incorporated societies at a charge sufficient to cover the cost of the operation and the value of the metal.—Scientific American.

Why Wild Beasts Left Missouri.

No elk have been seen in central Missouri since 1836. Prior to that time they were reasonably plenty. They were attracted by the prevalence of the salt licks. Nathaniel Walker, or "Uncle Natty," as he was familiarly called, a famous pioneer hunter, claims to have counted fifty elk in a drove on the knoll near the present Saline county courthouse. The bear disappeared about the year 1840, though occasionally animals of the bear tribe were afterward seen. Old time Democrats said that the Whigs scared the bear, deer, elk and almost every other kind of game out of the country in 1840 by their yelling, avil firing and torchlight parades in honor of General Benjamin Harrison, their successful candidate for president.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Fire Insurance Policies.

There are not many real estate brokers who know how to write a fire insurance policy. Many, however, think they are experts about such matters until a client of theirs learns after his property has been damaged by fire that he was only partly insured. "If buildings are to be insured," says R. O. Haubold, "care should be taken to issue the policy in the name of the persons in whom title is vested; that provision is made that should the building stand upon ground held in any other way than fee simple the policy will not be voided by that fact. If the premises be or become vacant for a period of more than ten days the contingency must be met."—New York Tribune.

Old Glory.

I have seen the glories of art and architecture and of river and mountain. I have seen the sunset on the Jungfrau and the moon rise over Mont Blanc. But the fairest vision on which these eyes ever rested was the flag of my country in a foreign port. Beautiful as a flower to those who love it, terrible as a meteor to those who hate it, it is the symbol of the power and the glory and the honor of fifty millions of Americans.—George F. Hoar.

A Sigh From the Author.

"Proofreading is Greek to me, even after having several books published," Miss Alice Louise Lee recently wrote to her publishers. "But what worries me is this psychological question, Will my corrections be as unintelligible to the printer as all his marks are to me? It seems to me very confusing. In the face of proofreading I feel like the farmer who before the rhinoceros' cage declared, 'There ain't no such beast!'"

His Honor at Stake.

"Young man, how do you expect to marry my daughter if you are in debt?" "Why, sir, in my opinion it's the only square thing to do. The longer I am engaged to her the worse off I will be."—Life.

The Servant Problem.

"I, sir," said the demonstrative candidate, "am a servant of the people." "Gosh!" replied Farmer Cornstossel. "Ain't this servant problem gettin' to be awful?"—Washington Star.

Heaven will be inhabited by every man who has heaven in his soul.—Beecher.

CITY GOVERNMENT

Official Synopsis of Proceedings of Common Council.

Adjourned meeting of the Common Council of the City of Stevens Point, held in the Council Chambers Friday,
April 5, at 8 o'clock p. m., his honor,
Mayor Walters presiding.
Roll call showed all members of council present except Alderman Urowski.

Minutes of regular meetings March 5 and April 3 and special meeting
March 14, were read and approved.
John W. Strope assisted the clerk by reading the minutes of the previous meetings, reports and petitions.

The proposed franchise to be granted the Chicago & Wisconsin Valley Railway company was presented. Upon motion of Alderman McDonald the reading of the same was deferred until next meeting, at or before which time representatives of the said company desire to meet the committee to confer with them.

The monthly report of the controller for March 1912, giving a list of persons receiving aid from the city, and the amount each received, amounting to a total of $174.42, was presented and read and upon motion received and ordered placed on file.

The quarterly report of chief of police ending March 31, 1912, was presented and read, and on motion of Alderman Redfield the report was received and placed on file.

A petition from the chairmen and members of the election boards of every ward in the city asking for an increase in pay for services in their respective wards because under the new election law the polls of election now open at 6 a. m. and remain open until 8 p. m., after which the counting of the ballots and making necessary reports require at least three additional hours, making 17 consecutive hours of labor. That the law provides a "reasonable compensation" be paid to inspectors, clerks of election and ballot clerks for such services. Said petition therefore requested the honorable mayor and common council to fix the compensation of inspectors and election clerks at $4.50, being at the rate of $3 per day for one and one half days and for ballot clerks $3, or at the rate of $2 per day for one and one half days.

On motion of Alderman Schenk duly seconded the prayer of the petitioners was granted, the increased pay to apply also for services rendered at the recent election of April 2, 1912, and the clerk be directed to draw an order upon the treasurer for the increase of pay to the election board for the April 2, 1912 election. Unanimously carried by an aye and nay vote.

A petition from C. Krembs & Bro., allowing them to sink a gasoline storage tank six feet under ground on the public square, just east of their wagon scale. Upon motion of Alderman Koch duly seconded the prayer of the petitioners was unanimously granted.

A petition was presented and read from property owners on Wisconsin street to improve Wisconsin street from Division street to Water street by constructing therein a 28 foot wide macadam pavement with cement curb and gutter; signed by estate of John Week by A. R. Week, N. J.
Knope, S. G. Stoddard, O. D. Howard, Luey E. Lindores, and others.

Upon motion duly seconded and unanimously carried the motion was referred to the street committee.

A petition from property owners on Pine street to improve Pine from Wisconsin street to Division street by constructing thereon a 28 foot wide macadam pavement with cement curb and gutter, signed by estate of John Week by A. R. Week, the John Week Lumber Co. by A. R. Week, secretary, and E. H. Joy. Upon motion duly seconded and unanimously carried petition was referred to the street committee.

Messrs. A. R. Week and E. H. Joy addressed the council relative to the construction of a sewer either on Pine or Plover street to connect with the Wisconsin street sewer. Alderman Schenk suggested that they present a written petition to the council, and the work when ordered will follow in regular rotation with sewer work already laid out to be built.

His honor appointed Aldermen Redfield, Schenk and Wallace a committee to canvass the election returns.

A recess was then taken until the committee completed their canvass.
Upon reconvening the canvassing committee made their report, which upon motion was ordered placed on file.

Alderman Altenberg suggested that the street committee take steps to open up the water fountains and see that they are in running condition.

No further business appearing, un-on motion the council adjourned.

Annual meeting of the Common Council of the City of Stevens Point, held in the Council Chambers Tuesday, April 16, at 8:30 p. m., his honor
Mayor Walters presiding.

Roll call showed all members of the council present except Alderman Redfield.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

His honor, the mayor, addressed the council, thanking them for their uniform courtesy and support afforded him, and commending them for the faithful and able discharge of their duties during a year of unusual activity in the various departments of the city affairs.

On motion of Alderman Abb a vote of thanks was tendered the retiring aldermen for the able manner in which they had performed their duties during their terms of office.

Upon presentation of the proposed franchise of the Chicago & Wisconsin Valley Railroad Co. Alderman McDonald moved that the matter be deferred to a future meeting as representatives of the company had expressed a desire to meet with the committee for further consideration of the franchise before action by the council shall have been taken.

The committee on license recommended that the application of Hanson & Leonard for a saloon license be denied, and upon motion duly seconded the committee's report was accepted and recommendation adopted by a unanimous vote.

There being no further business, upon motion of Alderman Schenk the council adjourned sine die.

After a short recess the new council for the ensuing year convened.

Roll call showed all members present except Alderman Atwell of the Third ward.

Upon motion of Alderman McDonald duly seconded and unanimously carried, the clerk was directed to cast the unanimous vote of the council for C. A. Schenk for president of the council for the ensuing year. The ballot was cast accordingly by the clerk and Alderman Schenk declared president of the council for the ensuing year.

Alderman Schenk, accepting, expressed his thanks for the honor conferred and his assurances that he would perform the duties thus imposed upon him to the best of his ability.

The clerk presented and read answers to correspondence had with experts upon the subject of concrete sewer pipe. Upon motion of Alderman McDonald the letters were ordered placed on file, and correspondence had with users of concrete pipe in the east, as to their experience where using the same for sewer purposes.

A remonstrance was presented and read from property owners on Wisconsin street, against the construction of an amcadam pavement with cement curb and gutter on said street
from Division street to Water street, which upon motion duly seconded and unanimously carried was referred to the street committee with instruction to report upon at next meeting of the council.

A communication from E. H. Joy was presented and read wherein Mr.
Joy stated his desire to have a sewer laid on Pine street from Wisconsin to Division street, and petitioning council for permission to construct a ten inch sewer on street above mentioned joining Wisconsin street sewer, said E. H. Joy agreeing to pay the entire expense incurred in building said described sewer, with the understanding that the amount so paid by him will be refunded to him by the city, when sewer funds are available with the city. Upon motion of Alderman Schenk, seconded by Wallace, the request was unanimously granted on an aye and nay vote.

L. J. N. Murat was permitted to address the council upon the subject of sewer construction in the vicinity of Division and Center streets.

Alderman McDonald presented a resolution whereby the salary of the sealer of weights and measures was increased from ten dollars to fifty dollars a month. Alderman Altenberg moved the adoption of the reso-

Why Have "Nerves?"

This is the reason why women have "nerves." When thoughts begin to grow cloudy and uncertain, impulses lag and the warnings of pain and distress are sent like flying messages throughout limbs and frame, straightaway, nine times in ten, a woman will lay the cause of the trouble to some defect at the point where she first felt it. Is it a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twitching and uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Dr. Pierce, during a long period of practice, found that a prescription made from medicinal extracts of native roots, without the use of alcohol, relieved over 90 per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in form of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that would make it easily procurable, and it can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

Mrs. Liza B. Hawkins, of Zeus, Va., writes: "I had been failing in health for two years—most of the time was not able to attend to my household duties.
Female weakness was my trouble and I was getting very bad but, thanks to Doctor Pierce's medicines, I am well and strong again. I took only three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' and used the 'Lotion Tablets.' I have nothing but praise for Doctor Pierce's wonderful medicines."

sary fence posts, for repair of fences, and the enclosing of the "east line," the city to furnish fence wire for same, was presented and read. Upon motion of Alderman Abb the bid of said Steiler was accepted as to but providing that same Fred Steiler for the necessary repairs and fence construction at his own expense.

seconded and unanimously carried the rate of six (6) per cent for actual time only. Upon motion of Alderman Wallace duly seconded and unanimously carried, action on the matter was deferred, and the clerk authorized to readvertise for bid for city depository.

Upon motion of Ald. McDonald unanimously carried the controller and fire committee were instructed and authorized to advertise for bids for 1,000 feet of hose, bids and samples to be presented for council's consideration, with committee's report thereon.

Alderman Schenk stated that the location of a number of street signs had been changed, and some were in a loose condition on account of improper setting, and also that the city limits sign in the vicinity of Plover Hills had been removed some distance out of place. The street committee was instructed to remedy the matter at once.

There being no further business before this council, upon motion the council adjourned.

TO THE CASH BUYERS

Why You Can Do Better at The Leader Than at Credit Stores.

We back every article sold. We back every statement we make in regard to goods in our store, and when we make this statement we mean exactly what we say. If any article bought in this store fails to give satisfaction, all you have to do is to notify us and we will make it right in such a way that you will be satisfied. We are selling cheaper than any other store because we buy in large quantities and for cash for six large stores, enabling us to underbuy and undersell. We sell for cash only because we do not care to make any difference between our customers. Your trade is as good to us as your neighbors, and if he gets credit it amounts to giving him a premium on his trade, and besides there are always losses from credit business, no matter how careful one is. Then you, Mr. Cash Customer, pay for these losses if you buy in a credit store—in other words, you not only pay for your own goods but you are forced to pay for those of the "dead beats." Can you imagine what that will amount to in a year's time? Would you not rather have that in your own pocket or in the bank now?

FOR PARTY ORGANIZATION

Democrats Will Again Hold a State Convention and Place Candidates in the Field for State Offices.

A call signed by the chairman and secretary of the Democratic State Central committee for a convention to be held in Milwaukee on Thursday, July 11th, appears in this issue. This will probably be the largest state convention ever held in Wisconsin, the total number of delegates being 836. In this connection a resolution introduced by John A. Aylward, which is in part as follows, was unanimously passed by the committee:

Resolved, That this committee and the Democratic party of Wisconsin stand committed to the principle of primary nominations for all state, congressional, legislative and county officers, but we recognize that under our form of government party organizations are absolutely essential for the carrying on of the machinery of government.

We therefore recommend to the state convention here called that nominations be received for each place on the state ticket; that the convention proceed to ballot on such nominations as heretofore, and that the state chairman be instructed to circulate the nomination papers of the two candidates for each office who shall receive the highest number of votes on the nominating ballot, that is, on the first ballot when any candidate shall receive a plurality of the votes. Provided that if there be but two nominations made nomination papers for both such candidates shall be circulated by the state chairman.

Thus, if there should be divisions, in sentiment, in the convention, it will give to all an equal opportunity to appeal to the democratic voters at the primary, and leave the field open to any other candidate to cause his nomination papers to be circulated if he or his friends so desire.

For the Hair

Are you so fortunate as to be well satisfied with your hair? Is it long enough, thick enough, rich enough? And your hair does not fall out? Well, well, that is good. But you may know of some not so fortunate. Then just tell them about Ayer's Hair Vigor. They will surely thank you after using it, if not before. Remember, it does not color the hair. Show the list of ingredients to your doctor. Let him decide their value. He knows.

Chicago.—William Howard Taft of Ohio and James Schoolcraft Sherman of New York were again named to head the Republican national ticket during the closing hours of the convention Saturday night, after five days of desperate fighting in which every step was bitterly contested by the Taft and Roosevelt forces. While Taft was being nominated a new party, headed by the ex-president, was being born.

The total number of delegates was 1,076; necessary to a choice, 540. La Follette was the only other candidate presented to the convention.

Necessary to choice, 540.

Colonel Roosevelt early in the afternoon cutting all ties with what he designated as a packed and fraudulently constituted assembly.

Roosevelt's Retirement Announced.
Henry J. Allen of Kansas made the announcement of Colonel Roosevelt's retirement. He read a statement from the colonel in which he set forth that the convention had no claim to represent the voters of the Republican party, that the convention represented nothing but successful fraud in overriding the will of the rank and file of the party. Mr. Roosevelt urged the men elected as delegates for him to decline to vote on any matter before the convention, and practically all of the delegates who favored his nomination followed his bidding.

Mr. Allen concluded his sensational speech with the declaration that he and the other Roosevelt men did not bolt. "We merely insist," said he, "that you, not we, are making the record, and we refuse to be bound by it. We have pleaded with you for ten days, we have fought with you for five days for a square deal. We fight no more. We plead no more. We shall sit in protest, and the people who sent us here shall judge us."

Immediately after this declaration the committee on resolutions reported, and after the Taft platform had been read the La Follette platform was placed before the convention.

Candidates Are Nominated.
President Taft's name was placed before the convention shortly by Harding of Ohio, and the nomination was seconded by John Wanamaker of Philadelphia and Nicholas Murray Butler of New York.

Sherman was nominated by J. Van Vleet of Olcott of New York and seconded by an Ohio delegate in behalf of the 14 followers of the president from that state.

Senator Cummins of Iowa was not placed in nomination, according to the program, although he received 17 votes.

Michael B. Olbrich, a young lawyer from Madison, placed the name of La Follette before the delegates in a speech that was frequently interrupted by applause, and it was seconded by Robert M. Pollock of Fargo, a member of the North Dakota delegation. Before La Follette was nominated, however, Walter L. Houser, his campaign manager, read a statement from the senator saying he could not stand on the platform adopted by the convention, even if selected, as it did not embody the progressive principles for which he stood.

Roosevelt Men Give Up.
From the time that Chairman Root called the last day's session to order at 10:43 a. m., it was apparent that the Roosevelt men had given up the struggle against their opponents. They had reached a point where they could laugh at their own misfortunes, which they did to the great enjoyment of the entire convention.

All the contested delegates were given their seats with hardly a moan from the Roosevelt forces. Even when the Texas contests were reached and heard by the convention, the steam roller failed to pause.

Time being short and the delegates hoping to get home in time for Sunday dinners, it was necessary at times to forget even parliamentary practice. The program included a motion from James E. Watson of Indiana favoring adoption of the credentials committee report after each contest had been heard. It soon became evident that this was consuming too much time, so the "silver-tongued orator" only rose in his seat and Chairman Root announced that the motion had been made.

By the same method Mr. Root announced that the motion had been carried after the thunderous volume of objecting delegates had rent the air—whereupon the Roosevelt men tooted their whistles, laughed and appeared to be having the time of their lives.

Committee Ends Work.
The reports of the credentials committee that were ready when the convention met were quickly disposed of by seating the Taft delegates as recommended by the majority report.

Even Chairman Root showed that he was willing to take part in the good-natured "last day" frolic of the convention. During the mad rush of the early morning session P. W. Howard, a Mississippi delegate who bears the distinction of being instructed for both Taft and Roosevelt, arose and announced that he wished to state a point of personal privilege.

"I wish to say that the steam roller is exceeding the speed limit," he said. "The gentleman is sustained," announced Chairman Root to the surprise of the delegates. "But it is because we have hopes of getting home to our Sunday dinners," he added.

Root Retains Place.
The temporary organization of the convention was made permanent at 2:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The organization was effected with the utmost ease, in marked contrast to the fight over the temporary organization.

The committee on permanent organization, of which Senator Clarence D. Clark of Wyoming was chairman, presented its report recommending that all temporary officers be made permanent. There was no minority report.

The report was adopted by a viva voce vote. This action was taken immediately after the credentials committee reports were disposed of finally.

Senator Root in assuming the duties of permanent chairman omitted the formality of a speech. He thanked the convention for conferring the honor upon him and then asked that Henry J. Allen of Kansas be given permission to present the Roosevelt statement urging the former president's delegates to take only a passive part in the proceedings of the convention from that time on.

The most important of the officers of the convention besides Senator Root were Lafayette B. Gleason of New York, secretary, and William F. Stone of Baltimore, sergeant-at-arms.

As the result of an agreement by the Taft leaders, the report of the committee on rules and order of procedure had been tabled on a motion by James E. Watson, the Taft floor leader. The report was presented by Senator Clarence D. Clark, the chairman of the committee. A minority report providing for restriction of southern representation also was tabled.

Rules for Next Convention.
As a result of the tabling of both reports the rules of the next convention will be the same that have governed the present convention. Delegates will be elected in the same manner.

One of the proposed new rules in the tabled report provided that the national committee should have authority to remove any member who refuses to support the party nominees. This rule was arrived at after the declaration of the Roosevelt national committeemen of their intention to support Roosevelt in the event Taft is nominated.

Root Named Chairman.
The first day's work of the convention resulted in the selection of Elihu Root of New York as temporary chairman amid scenes of great disorder.

STATEMENT OF COLONEL ROOSEVELT TO THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Statement by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, which was read to the convention by Henry J. Allen of Kansas:

A clear majority of the delegates honestly elected to this convention were chosen by the people to nominate me. Under the direction, and with the encouragement of Mr. Taft, the majority of the national committee, by the so-called "steam-roller" methods, and with scandalous disregard of every principle of elementary honesty and decency, stole eighty or ninety delegates, putting on the temporary roll call a sufficient number of fraudulent delegates to defeat the legally expressed will of the people, and to substitute a dishonest for an honest majority.

The convention has now declined to purge the roll of the fraudulent delegates placed thereon by the defunct national committee, and the majority which thus indorsed fraud was made a majority only because it included the fraudulent delegates themselves, who all sat as judges on one another's cases. If these fraudulent votes had not thus been cast and counted the convention would have been purged of their presence. This action makes the convention in no proper sense any longer a Republican convention representing the real Republican party. Therefore I hope the men elected as Roosevelt delegates will now decline to vote on any matter before the convention. I do not release any delegate from his honorable obligation to vote for me if he votes at all, but under the actual conditions I hope that he will not vote at all.

The convention as now composed has no claim to represent the voters of the Republican party. It represents nothing but successful fraud in overriding the will of the rank and file of the party. Any man nominated by the convention as now constituted would be merely the beneficiary of this successful fraud; it would be deeply discreditable to any man to accept the convention's nomination under these circumstances; and any man thus accepting it would have no claim to the support of any Republican on party grounds, and would have forfeited the right to ask the support of any honest man of any party on moral grounds.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Reaffirms party's principles. Demands untrammelled and independent judiciary. To continue constructive legislation. Demands laws to safeguard public health. Promises workmen's compensation laws. Favors legislation to facilitate court procedure. Declares recall of judges unnecessary, but favors legislation to simplify removal of derelict judges. Declares against special privilege and monopoly, and favors changes in anti-trust laws. Recommends federal trade commission. Reaffirms belief in protective tariff and recommends reduction of some of present duties. Campaign contributions by corporations should be prohibited. Conservation approved. Favors parcels post. Declares for adequate navy and urges revival of merchant marine. Favors aid in improvement of Mississippi river. Asks more generous laws for settlers. Favors more liberal and systematic river and harbor improvements. Safeguarding of life at sea. Lauds Republican accomplishments and Republican rule under McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft.

thus scoring an important victory for the Taft forces.

The Roosevelt men voted for Gov. Francis E. McGovern of Wisconsin and the final vote stood: Root, 558; McGovern, 502.

When Senator Root took the chair he was given an ovation in which the Roosevelt delegates took no part. In his speech he eulogized President Taft for the wise legislation he credited him with; defended the tariff legislation of the party; plead for a continuance of constitutional government and the policies of the Republican party, and attacked the initiative and referendum and the recall of judges.

Ovation for Hadley.
The two overshadowing features of the session of the convention Wednesday were the big ovation for Governor Hadley of Missouri, the Roosevelt floor leader, and a second test vote which showed that the Taft forces were holding their own.

The demonstration for Governor Hadley came unexpectedly and carried the convention off its feet. Delegates snatched up state banners and began marching about the hall shouting: "Hadley, Hadley, we want Hadley." If the convention had been organized for business it is not unlikely that he would have carried off the nomination for president hands down.

A beautiful girl in the gallery waved a picture of Roosevelt, waving her handkerchief and throwing kisses to the crowd, led the cheering and turned it partly for the ex-president.

Thursday and Friday little business was transacted while the fight on the contested delegates was being made before the credentials committee. A partial report was submitted Friday afternoon when the delegates took up the work of passing on the reports submitted.

But the proceedings of Saturday overshadowed all that had gone before and when adjournment was taken at 10:30 o'clock a fight that will go down as the hardest ever fought in a Republican convention passed into history.

DEFENDS THE COURTS COL. ROOSEVELT TO HEAD NEW PARTY

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM DEMANDS "UNTRAMMELED AND INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY."

RECALL IS NOT NECESSARY

Platform, However, Provides for Action to Simplify Removal of Derelict Judges—Taft Universal Peace Idea Indorsed—Changes in Anti-Trust Law Favored.

The platform adopted by the Republican convention opens with a preamble reaffirming allegiance to the party's principles and declares its undying, unchanging faith in government "of the people, by the people and for the people."

It expresses in strong language a demand for the continuance of an "untrammelled and independent judiciary." It declares for a continuation of the constitution of the United States as it stands today.

It promises to continue to be a party of "advance and constructive statesmanship."

The platform promises to strive, not only in the nation, but in the several states, to enact legislation to safeguard the public health, limit effectively the labor of women and children, and to protect wage earners engaged in dangerous occupations and to enact workmen's compensation laws.

Uphold Court's Integrity.

The platform reaffirms its intention to uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts, both state and federal, and demands that the power of the courts to protect life, liberty and property, shall be held inviolate.

The platform favors legislation which will bring more hasty decisions by the courts in both civil and criminal cases, and less tedious and costly appeals.

While announcing that the party regards the recall of judges as unnecessary, the platform declares for such action as may simplify the removal from office of any judge who may be found derelict in his duty.

It indorses the Taft peace idea and the settlement of international disputes peaceably and the reference of all justifiable controversies between nations to an international court of justice.

Anti-Trust Laws.

It declares against special privilege and monopoly and recommends amendments to the present anti-trust laws, defining criminal offenses against the law, and providing for the punishment of the violators.

It recommends the creation of a federal trade commission for the administration and enforcement of federal laws governing interstate commerce and enterprises.

The platform reaffirms Republican belief in a protective tariff. It denounces the tariff for revenue only idea, as destructive to many industries. It recommends the reduction of some of the present import duties. The Democratic party is condemned for failure to provide funds for the continuance of the tariff board.

The Democratic tariff bills, passed by the present house of representatives, are condemned as sectional, injurious to public credit and destructive of business enterprise.

Promises to Lower "High Cost."

There is a cost of living plank. It recommends a scientific inquiry into the causes, which are operative both in the United States and elsewhere, to increase the cost of living. When the exact facts are known the party pledges itself to enact legislation to remove these causes.

A more elastic currency law is demanded. The platform also asks for legislation which will give the farmers better facilities for borrowing money easily and cheaply. It urges on authoritative investigation of agricultural credit societies and corporations in other countries and the passage of state and federal laws for the supervision of organizations having for their purpose the loaning of money to farmers.

The platform urges the passage of a law enabling the president to extend civil service as "far as practicable."

Prohibition of campaign contributions by corporations is urged.

The publication of campaign contributions is indorsed.

Favors Conservation.
The platform favors a continuation of the conservation policy.

It favors the establishment of a parcels post, postal rates to be graduated under a zone system in proportion to length of carriage.

It declares for the existence of an adequate navy and condemns the Democratic house of representatives for refusing to authorize the construction of additional battleships.

It urges a revival of the merchant marine.

It urges the federal government to assume a part of the burden of controlling the flood waters of the Mississippi river.

Accepts Tentative Nomination If Test Shows Sentiment for Call.

OUTLINES POSITION IN TALK

Asks Support of All People Who Believe in Doctrines He Enunciates—Declares Fight is for Rule by the People.

Chicago.—Colonel Roosevelt delivered the keynote speech Saturday night at an informal mass convention of progressive Republicans, held in Orchestra hall, in which he definitely severed his relations with the present Republican party. He said he would accept the candidacy for the presidency if at the delegate convention to be held later it was determined that he was the man to lead the fight. He urged that men, regardless of present party affiliations, who believe in the doctrines he enunciates shall join in the cause.

The new party which the colonel contemplates will be the progressive party, and it will combine all men of all sections who are in sympathy with the movement.

Speech of Roosevelt.

In his speech, Colonel Roosevelt said, among other things:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for your nomination, and in you I recognize the lawfully elected delegates to the Republican convention who represent the overwhelming majority of the voters who took part in the Republican primaries prior to the convention, and who represent the wish of the majority of the lawfully elected members of the convention. I accept the nomination subject to but one condition."

"This has now become a contest which cannot be settled merely along the old party lines. The principles that are at stake are as broad and as deep as the foundations of our democracy itself. They are in no sense sectional. They should appeal to all honest citizens, east and west, north and south; they should appeal to all right thinking men, whether Republicans or Democrats, without regard to their previous party affiliations."

"I feel the time has come when not only all men who believe in progressive principles, but all men who believe in those elementary maxims of public and private morality which must underlie every form of successful free government, should join in one movement."

Suggests Mass Convention.

"Therefore I ask you to go to your several homes to find out the sentiment of the people at home, and then again to come together, I suggest by mass convention, to nominate for the presidency a progressive candidate on a progressive platform—a candidate and a platform that will enable us to appeal to northerner and southerner, easterner and westerner, Republican and Democrat alike, in the name of our common American citizenship."

"If you wish me to make the fight I will make it, even if only one state should support me. The only condition I impose is that you shall feel entirely free when you come together to substitute any other man in my place if you deem it better for the movement, and in such case I will give him my heartiest support."

Fight is for Rule by People.

"As for the principles for which I stand, I have set them forth fully in the many speeches I have made during the last four months, while making an active contest for the nomination which I won, and out of which I have been cheated by the men who feared to see these principles reduced to action."

"Fundamentally, these principles are, first, that the people have the right to rule themselves, and can do so better than any outsiders can rule them; and, second, that it is their duty so to rule in a spirit of justice toward every man and every woman within our borders, and to use the government so far as possible as an instrument for obtaining not merely political, but industrial, justice. We do not stand for these principles as mere abstractions any more than we stand for honesty and fair play as mere abstractions."

"For Honesty and Fair Play."

"We seek to apply them practically in every relation of life where we have power. We stand for honesty and fair play."

"I hold that we are performing a high duty in inaugurating this movement, for the permanent success of practices such as have obtained in the 'fraudulent convention that has just closed its sittings would mean the downfall of this republic; and we are performing the most patriotic of duties when we set our faces like flint against such wrong."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
